

THE ROOSEVELT CONDOMINIUM
RULES AND REGULATIONS

The following Rules and Regulations regarding the condominium property, the common elements, the condominium units, and the condominium in general shall apply to and be binding upon all unit owners, tenants and guests. The unit owners shall at all times obey said Rules and Regulations and shall use their best efforts to see that they are faithfully observed by their families, guests, invitees, servants, lessees, persons for whom they are responsible and persons over whom they exercise control and supervision.

Any waivers, consents or approvals given under these Rules and Regulations by the Board of Directors shall be revocable at any time and shall not be considered as a waiver, consent or approval of identical or similar situations unless such waiver, consent or approval is specifically set forth, in writing, by the Board of Directors.

THE RULES AND REGULATIONS ARE AS FOLLOWS:

1. RULES AND REGULATIONS:
 - A. Violations should be reported, in writing, to the Board of Directors of the Association.

Any damage to the building or any common elements or equipment caused by any unit owners or his guest shall be repaired at the expense of the responsible unit owner.
3. NOISE: Radios, televisions or other instruments which may create noise should be turned down to a minimum volume between the hours of 10:30 p.m. and 8:00 a.m. All other unnecessary noises, such as loud greetings to arriving guests, bidding good night to departing guests, yelling, loud knocking or slamming of apartment or car doors, between these hours is to be avoided. If such incident is reported to the board or managing agent, a fine in the amount of $100 per violation will be levied following notice and a hearing.
4. OBSTRUCTION; FIRE VIOLATIONS: The lobby, the elevator and all sidewalks, entrances, driveways, passages, patios, courts, catwalks, vestibules, stairways, corridors and halls must be kept open and shall not be obstructed in any manner. Any violation will subject the owner or tenant to a fine.

Any obstruction is a violation of the Florida Fire Code for which fines to the Association can be $250 per violation.

Rugs or mats must not be placed outside of doors in corridors or on walkways. No sign, notice or advertisement shall be inscribed or exposed on or any window or any part of the building, except such as shall have been approved in writing by the Association, nor shall anything be projected out of any window in the building without similar approval. No radio or television aerial or antenna or satellite dish shall be attached to, or hung from the exterior of the building or the roof thereon.

5. CHILDREN: Children are not to play in the common elements, such as stairways, walkways or front yard. Reasonable supervision must be exercised when children are present on the premises.

6. DESTRUCTION OF PROPERTY: Neither unit owners, their family members, lessees, nor guests shall mark, mar, damage, destroy, deface or engrave any part of the building. This includes bicycle tire markings in the halls and stairwells. Unit owners and tenants shall be financially responsible for any such damage. If such incident is reported to the board or managing agent, a fine in the amount of $100 per violation will be levied following notice and a hearing.

7. ASSESSMENTS: Monthly assessments are considered late if received by the management office after the seventh (7th) day of the month. Assessments that are late 9 out of 12 months in any calendar year, or that are unpaid for 3 or more consecutive months, incur an additional late fee of $500, in addition to the regular late fee.

Should a unit owner make a habit of remitting in a late fashion or refuse to pay an assessment in full including late fees and interest, the Association reserves the legal right to accelerate the entire year's remaining assessment amount and make the total due and payable on the date the claim of lien is filed. Legal action against such owner for collection through a money judgment will be commenced without waiving any claim of lien to foreclose. The association in addition to the total assessment due will be entitled to recover court costs and reasonable attorney's fees incurred.

A unit owner who wishes to pay quarterly may do so by notifying the management office and setting up a quarterly schedule. Quarterly payments are due in advance. Quarterly assessments are considered late if received by the management office after the seventh (7th) day of the first month of the quarter. A late fee in the amount of $25 plus 18% interest will be incurred for each month fees continue to be delinquent.

An association screening application must be completed by the prospective tenant. A signed receipt of the Rules & Regulations and an application fee in the amount of $100 (made payable to the Roosevelt Condominium Association) must be submitted to the Lease Approval Committee appointed by the board for pre-approval of prospective tenants. A refundable $200 association security deposit is due from the tenant upon move-in and will be placed in escrow until such tenant moves out. If a unit owner is delinquent in payment of an assessment at the time approval for a proposed lease is sought, such delinquency is grounds for disapproval.

If a unit is leased without the prior knowledge, approval and acceptance of the board or managing agent, a fine in the amount of $100 per violation up to $1,000 for any continuing violation, will be levied following notice and a hearing. Legal action against such owner for damages and/or injunctive relief will be commenced and the association is entitled to recover court costs and reasonable attorney's fees.

Only unit owners can have a lessee's name put on the gate security directory by contacting the management office. Tenants must supply their landlord with phone numbers in order to program the gate directory. Unit owners can then contact the management office to provide the tenant's name and number.
